LONG JOHN BELL

I'm Long John Bell six foot nine;
I'm a ladies' man that you will find,
I'm Long John Bell .. Long John Bell from across the town
I can fill your order baby if you'll stick around.

I can hear them whisper when I walk in;
That's Long John Bell with his grin,
He's our ideal man .. that's been around
Long John Bell from across the town.
They will swoon, cry and blush with pride;

. . . . . .

When Long John Bell is by their side,
This is Long John Bell .. Long John Bell from across the town
I can fill your order baby if you'll stick around.

They will look up smiling and say with a grin;
Long John Bell you have my order again,
Long John Bell .. Long John Bell from across the town
I'm Long John Bell the news gets around.

I can walk through the town night or day,
I can hear the women say;
That's Long John Bell .. Long John Bell from across the town
He's our leading man that knows his way around.

They will cuddle up close and say to me;
Long John Bell you have my order I see,
Long John Bell .. Long John Bell from across the town
I can fill your order baby if you'll stick around.

The redheads, brunettes and the blondes,
They are the ones I take my orders from,
This is Long John Bell, Long John Bell from across the town
I'll take your order, baby, when your name comes around.

MY V-EIGHT GAL

The V-Eight Gal I'm speaking of
It's a gal I know, the one I love.
She came from the hills far away,
Into this town she walked one day.

. . . . . .

She passed me by with a grin,
My knees grew weak and my eyes dim.
I turned around this you can tell,
This V-Eight Gal I must know well.

I walked right up and shook her hand,
With love in her eyes I could understand.
I took her home with me you know,
This V-Eight Gal with no place to go.

In this world she was all alone,
So beautiful a maiden without a home.
She was a Virgin you could see,
The child-like smile she gave to me.

. . . . . .

With taunting eyes and a laughing smile,
She promised me to stay a while.
The love in her eyes was plain to see,
This V-Eight Gal was meant for me.

The days that followed this I know,
Seems like heaven at my door.
To have her come and hold my hand,
Was like to walk through promise land.

. . . . . .

But this was not enough you see,
To hold my hand and smile at me.
The torture of my mind was great,
For her love I was to take.

. . . . . .

Now with love and tender bliss,
I took her in my arms to kiss.
With lips like velvet they trembled so,
Her love for me is great I know.

. . . . . .

With twinkling eyes and laughing smile,
She said to me - lets wait a while.
My love for you is great I know,
So call the preacher to our door.

. . . . . .

I tell you now with love and pride,
This V-Eight Gal is now my bride.
No greater love could I find,
This V-Eight Gal - this love of mine.

YOUR SCARLET VOWS

Your scarlet vows that you have broken.
That was made our wedding day.
To God and man it was a token
A symbol of true love till the end.

. . . . . .

I built a home for you my darling
Where our love was to begin
This you defied and broke your promise,
For our Vows were to the end.

. . . . . .

Why oh why must you my darling
Leave me now so bitter and cold
Now that you have broken your promise.
God will mark and taint your soul.

. . . . . .

Come back to me now my darling
Come back to me before it's too late
These vows you made and your promise.
Our love was twain you shouldn't forsake.

. . . . . .

I searched my heart and troubled mind
No fault in our love could I find
My cherished love you cast aside
This my darling you can never hide.

. . . . . .

This flame in my heart you left burning
Was kindled there just by you.
I'll look through the years for your returning
What else is there for me to do?

"A TALK WITH GOD"

I am not complaining you can see,
All I want is a talk with Thee,
I'm in this world all alone
All of my people have long since gone.

. . . . . .

Thou know my heart, you can see
The troubles I've had was meant to be,
I have tried to bear my burdens well,
That you know, Oh, God, Thou can tell.

. . . . . .

From my childhood till this day,
I've never meant to go astray,
I've cherished my mother and dad,
No better loved ones have I had.

. . . . . .

With my childhood in the past;
I have grown to be a man at last,
I was to take a wife, to call my own,
One to cherish, love and build a home.

. . . . . .

Now for this family Thou gave to me
I am grateful you can see,
To have them come and call me Dad;
That's the greatest love one could have.

. . . . . .

Now that I have grown so old at last
It's hard to forget the memories of the past,
My eyes have grown dim; and my body frail,
Like an old ship without a sail.

. . . . . .

My greatest adventure I am to make at last,
To think of my friends in the past;
To know that some have long since gone,
To Thee, Father, in your Heavenly Home.

. . . . . .

I have grown so tired while in this bed I lie;
If I am in sin, forgive me before I die.
Thy commandments of thee I've tried to keep well;
Thou knowest, Oh, God, only Thou can tell.

"GUIDE ME, O'GOD, I'M THY CHILD"

This I must tell you, God lent a hand
These words I'm writing, you'll understand
These talents Thou gave me I cannot hide
You are his loving children, God will provide.

Make me thy servant, show me Thy way
Love and protect me throughout this day.
We are your children in Thy care
The burning flame in my heart you kindled there.

. . . . . .

I'm not searching for money or fame
These words in my heart cannot remain
These words of God he is handing down
I'm a new servant God picked and found.

. . . . . .

From this day till I must die
These words I'll carry to heaven on high
To show my love and lend a hand
To God our Savior and fellow man.

. . . . . .

Your love and compassion you showed for all
Your work here on earth is easy to recall
I'll call to your children throughout this land
This word of God you must hear and understand.

Love your God like you would love your child
This life you are living he'll make worthwhile
Put your God above these earthly things
Think of heaven where he reigns.

. . . . . .

The tenth God is asking remains the same
He calls his children by their name
His life and love he gave freely to you
Love your God and do the things he would have you do.

. . . . . .

Do not think of him being so far away
He is your loving God with you each day
Reach out your hand to him, like a friend
This is your God, he will take you in.

. . . . . .

In your illness or in despair
Think of God in heaven there
In your heart pray like a child
God will make your time worthwhile.

. . . . . .

God is on his throne in heaven we know
He prepares a mansion for us to go
His kingdom so great in all its splendor
Take heed and warning his words remember.

A.H.S. Newscast

By Peggy Wooten

Hello there!
The beautiful flowers being displayed in our school give us all a glorious breath of Spring. Our wonderful cafeteria staff, which supplies us with the most wonderful food in the world, also displays a great variety of flowers in their arrangements each day. We want to let them know that we appreciate them very much. And our attractive bulletin boards in each room are something to be seen and enjoyed by all, especially those who may be touring our town and school.

Report cards were received last week and boy, what cards! Some of us had studied hard received results, others of us who did not study quite as hard were filled with disappointment. For many, this will be the last report they will ever receive, with the exception of the last one issued in June.

The Hi-Y elected its slate of officers for the coming year at their last meeting. They are as follows: President, Dorothy Painter
Vice President, Madelyn Guill
Secretary, Mildred Tolley
Treasurer, Frances Carson
Reporter, Helen Franklin
Chaplain, Barbara Wooldridge
Sergeant, Joella Ferguson.

The Seniors have returned from their trip to New York. They are full of talk and happiness, so it must have been a wonderful trip. They went to many places of interest, as Radio City Music Hall, United Nations, Rockefeller Center, Empire State Building, Statue of Liberty, N. B. C., China Town, St. John's Cathedral, and many other wonderful places. They stayed at the Hotel Piccadilly, just off Times Square, so they were very conveniently located. Each one of these Seniors wants to thank all of those who helped make their trip possible.

It's that time now when the Seniors find themselves almost at the end of a lovely year, their Senior year. Some will look back with smiles and happiness, while others will probably look back with just a portion of regret. They have started their practices on graduation exercises. The play to be used for Class Night, which is June 1, will be entitled, "Senior-Merry-Go-Round." It is just as merry as it sounds, filled with laughter and merriment. Every Senior will be participating in this play.

Everyone at A. H. S. likes to welcome former graduates back into the halls of A. H. S. One of our outstanding former students, Randolph Martin, was visiting at school this week. He is making plans to be a Methodist minister. He has just completed a college education at Lynchburg, and he plans to attend Westminister in Maryland for his seminary training. All of the kids here wish you Godspeed in this glorious work you are undertaking, Randolph.

Well, this is all from A. H. S. this week. See you soon.

More's dramatic proof that Chrysler has more that's new than other competitive cars combined!

*Optional at small extra cost

And the other 5 cars still do not have full-time power steering and the airplane-type V-8 engine . . . major advances which Chrysler has had for years!

You can pay as much as $3000 for a fully-equipped "low-priced" car. For less than that you can own the bigger, more powerful, year-ahead Chrysler Windsor V-8! Standard equipment includes Airfoam Seat Cushions, Heavy Duty Oil Bath Filter, Electric Windshield Wipers, Direction Signals and many other luxury extras. Also the greater size and luxurious comfort of a fine car, with a mighty airplane-type V-8 engine.
